OFFICE OF THE COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS AND CENTRAL EXCISE NOTIFICATIONS

Pondicherry, the 22nd April 1959

No. 3/59—It is notified for the information of the trade concerned that a special procedure for payment of the Central Excise duty at compounded rates is available for small scale manufacturers of vegetable non essential oil. The simplified procedure prescribed in this Office Central Excise Public Notice No. 2/59, dated 26th March 1959 will continue to be in force and the scheme of compounded levy is another option to small scale manufacturers.

2. The main feature of this scheme is reduction to the minimum possible extent the accounting processes prescribed for the administration of factory excises.

3. This scheme of compounded levy will be applicable only to the small manufacturers who employ 2 rotaries or 3 ghanis or 3 Kolhus or 3 pintos or 3 Chekkus or a combination of any of these equipments, not exceeding three in number out of which the number of rotary to be employed, shall be only one. The rates of compounded levy in respect of these manufacturers will be the rates prescribed under Government of India, Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue), Notification No. 46/59, dated 21st April 1959.

4. A preferential rate of compounded levy has also been prescribed for manufacturers who employ, throughout the year, only one rotary, or one Kolhu, or one Ghani or one Pinto or one Chekku.

5. The special procedure will be available only to those small scale manufacturers of vegetable non essential oil who having equipments as specified in paras 3 and 4 above work for not more than one shift of 8 hours per day.

6. Manufacturers entitled to avail the special procedure should apply to the Collector of Customs and Central Excise, Pondicherry in the prescribed form "A.S.P.". On being allowed to avail of the concession of the special procedure by the Collector, the manufacturer should submit an application in form A.R.7 in quadruplicate by the 25th of the month preceding the month for which the special procedure is to be utilised and pay the appropriate compounded duty either in cash, direct at the Treasury or through an account current maintained with the Collector.

7. Two copies of the A.R.7 endorsed with particulars of the credit of the compounded duty should then be presented to the Superintendent of Central Excise for according his permission. One copy of the A.R.7 returned with the Superintendent's permission should be produced before the Range Officer before the end of the month.

8. During this month permission is granted to avail of the special procedure, the manufacturer will be exempt from the provisions of rule 9 (excepting the second proviso to sub rule (1) thereof) 47, 49, 50, 51, 51-A, 52, 52-A, 53, 55, 223, 223-A, 224, 224-A and 229 of the Central Excise Rules 1944.

9. A manufacturer who avails of the special procedure, is required to maintain account in form R.G. 19 and submit an extract of the totals for the month from the register which will be deemed to be return in form R.T.3.

10. Any other working details of the procedure may be had by contacting the Range Officers concerned.
